5.6 Mural are still planned on the front door along with the 2nd and 3rd floor elevator.

6.0 New Business

6.1 John talked about the ongoing Covid-19 situation. Explained to residents that family will not be allowed access into the building until further notice so we will continue with facetime / Skype visits. John explained to residents that family may drop off items at the front door and it will be delivered to you. He also added how all staff workers are getting temperature taken upon arrival and stated that we will all be wearing masks when near a resident. Frequently touched items like door handles, elevators will be wiped four time per day.

6.2 Sherry reminded residents that salt and pepper shakers are now off the table but somebody will come around and offer it to you. She also addressed that table wiping is being done constantly.

6.3 Tunji talked about his Monday and Wednesday prayer services and that the Sunday church services will still be ongoing.

6.4 Geri fashions catalogs given to anyone who may have been interested in looking.

6.5 Recreation Saturday programs cancelled until further notice.

6.6 Rob announced to the residents that we have a new igniter in the hot water tank.

7.0 Round Table/Cares and Concerns

7.1 Residents were mostly content and happy with the current situation.

Norah stated that she is not satisfied with the meals. She also worries that
